THANKS

Lost Property

So, our lost property pile has become a mountain! We have so much in school unnamed and we are struggling to find their owners.

Today in assembly, we reminded children that if they remove a jumper/coat then it MUST go into their class black bucket. These will be outside in the playground and it will be their responsibility to put it in the right bucket. We hope this way we can narrow down the owner, but the biggest thing that will help would be for them to be named.

Can I ask that this weekend you check your child's uniform. Some names have disappeared, dropped out or become smudged and difficult to read?

You have no idea how much time is wasted trying to find the owners. Thank you

If any of these items are left for too long, then we donate them to our LSFA as seconds, so please feel free to pop in and have a look as our time should really be focused on teaching and learning.

Changing weather

Well, we've certainly started experiencing different seasons the last few days. I feel like I leave the house in autumn/winter, later that morning it's like spring and then sometimes this feels like summer. You know how changing the UK weather is, so I now ask that your child brings a coat in everyday (named!)

It's better they have one in school ready if it rains than not at all. It could just stay on their peg/locker for the day if it stays nice, but we never know for certain so best to be prepared please.

Please do not send your child in with an umbrella.

School photos have now been sent out this week with your children. The deadline to order is the 19th October.
